

As Komana Binbirdirek Hotel, we are committed to fully respecting human rights and working effectively to protect these rights. We adopt our human rights sustainability policy based on the following principles:

1. FAIR LABOR PRACTICES:

Komana Binbirdirek Hotel provides fair and equal labor practices to all employees. We prevent any discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, religion, disability and other characteristics.

2. EMPLOYEE RIGHTS:

We respect employee rights, respect trade union rights and apply occupational safety standards. We support our employees' access to fair wages, working hours and social benefits.

3. CUSTOMER PRIVACY:

We respect the privacy of our guests and protect their personal information securely. We continuously update and improve information security measures.

4. RESPECT FOR LOCAL COMMUNITIES:

Komana Binbirdirek Hotel respects the local communities in which it operates and is sensitive to their culture, values and needs. We cooperate with our communities and aim to contribute to their development.

5. SUPPLY CHAIN PRACTICES:

We promote respect for human rights and fair business practices in our supply chain. We expect our suppliers to adopt practices that comply with these values and we cooperate in this regard.

6. EDUCATION AND AWARENESS:

We raise awareness and train our employees on human rights. We organize continuous training programs to raise awareness of human rights compliance.

This policy aims to protect the human rights of our employees, guests and communities by respecting the human rights of Komana Binbirdirek Hotel. Adhering to the principle of continuous improvement, we continuously evaluate and improve our human rights sustainability performance.
