

Despite Istanbul's dense urban structure, the Fatih district offers several natural spots where you can spend time surrounded by nature. Here are some natural areas in Fatih:

1. Gülhane Park

- Description: Located near Istanbul's historic centre, Gülhane Park is next to Topkapi Palace. Known for its rich vegetation, walking paths, and wide grassy areas, it is a popular place for locals to relax and go for walks.

- Location: Emin Ali Paşa, 34112 Fatih/Istanbul

2. Süleymaniye Park

- Description: Situated near the Süleymaniye Mosque, this park offers elevated views of the city and access to surrounding natural spaces. With its natural greenery and shade-providing trees, the park is ideal for relaxing and enjoying a peaceful atmosphere.

- Location: Süleymaniye Mahallesi, 34116 Fatih/Istanbul

3. Yedikule Botanical Park

- Description: Located around the Yedikule Fortress, this botanical park is home to a variety of plant species. It combines historical and natural ambience, providing a serene escape close to the city.

- Location: Yedikule Mahallesi, 34025 Fatih/Istanbul

4. Aksaray Park

- Description: A small park in the Aksaray neighbourhood, Aksaray Park offers a pleasant space for those looking to get away from the busy city life. Surrounded by various trees and plants, it's a great spot for a quiet walk.

- Location: Aksaray, 34083 Fatih/Istanbul

5. Çırpıcı Park

- Description: Located in Fatih's Çırpıcı neighbourhood, this park is a frequently visited green space for local residents. It features walking paths, playgrounds, and spacious seating areas, providing a natural environment to spend time outdoors.

- Location: Çırpıcı Mahallesi, Fatih/Istanbul